

A Prescient Alarm for Germany & Europe

One of the most difficult issues for a God-fearing prophetic individual to grapple with is how to process revelation received in dreams or visions concerning a future adversity. The revelations concerning Germany and Europe that I have received during the first decade of the Third Millennium fall within this camp. In aggregate they are some of the most disturbing prophetic dreams that I have received to date about any nation or people. Therefore, I wanted to patiently and carefully process them, prior to subsequently acting on them at the Spirit's prompting. That being said, let me relay to you a series of three related revelatory dreams:

The setting for one of the dreams was in Germany (or a neighboring Germanic nation). The people spoke German and the signage was also in German. The setting was contemporary and the city and people appeared prosperous. [Note -- I am familiar with Germany, speak some German, and have a predominantly Germanic heritage. I love Germany and I love German people.] As I walked on a city street a group of paramilitary soldiers or police corralled "innocent" people of all ages into an articulated bus or S-bahn (streetcar). When the door closed the militia opened fire with automatic weapons shooting through the glass and thus killing the men, women, and children inside. Emotionally I was appalled. Then, the paramilitary or police approached the rear of a home that had modern European-style recycling containers and discarded German Riesling-style wine bottles near the back side of the home. These military men were lighting fuses on incendiary bombs to toss into the basement of the home. I challenged them shouting, "Don't you realize that you'll kill the occupants?" They brazenly replied, "That's exactly what we intend to do!" I was disturbed and said to a young woman pushing a child in a baby stroller, "Don't you see what they are doing?!" And, she gestured back to me in a dismissive manner, as if to say to me that it wasn't her problem. Then, I saw the militia shoot and kill the driver of a vehicle driving in the intersection, and the vehicle then ran over pedestrians coincidentally killing them, too. I walked to a kiosk to purchase an S-bahn ticket referred to as a Strippenkart. I paid with a paper note in Euros. I received the balance due in plastic Euro coins. When I realized that the coins had little-to-no value I held them up to the face of several German young adults standing near me at the kiosk. I shouted at them "THIS is the final sign!"

In another dream I was laying on the ground in the snow in frigid weather. I wasn't there voluntarily. I was one of many people in a death camp laying in rows and columns in a large outdoor field. It was an economical systematic killing machine. Every few minutes the "German" prison guard or soldier would shout an order for everyone to arise and move forward one row and then lay down again. The goal was to see who was fit enough to endure the test of getting to the other end of the field before freezing to death. It was cheaper than using a bullet. I spoke to the man nearest me saying “Someone needs to do something about this!” And he replied “Keep quiet! It is no use. You should only care about yourself here.” The guard called for a latrine break, and all of the males who could rise up out of the snow graves went to a ditch to urinate. The guard was willing to “make a deal” of leniency with anyone willing to engage in homosexual sex with him. He was a disgusting immoral beast of a man, lacking in all human virtue.

In yet another dream I was a passenger in a van in a European nation. We arrived at a large new governmental building or mansion, which we entered. I was touring on my own when I heard an enraged woman shouting inside, “What is he doing here?! I don’t want him to know what we’re doing!” I quickly exited the rear of the building where I discovered another death camp field. The adult victims were laying in rows and columns, similar to the other dream above. It was summertime, so this was a utilitarian exercise to see who was physically and emotionally fit. Like clockwork every few minutes the people were all required to rise up and move forward one position. Those who could move up the rows the length of the field were deemed to be healthy and useful. By comparison, it would be similar to culling out weak livestock on a farm. Those that were unfit would be dealt with.

At this juncture I prefer to refrain from detailed interpretations of each dream. However, there are some common themes: (1) Use of oppressive military or police force; (2) Impugnity and insensitivity to the value of human life by those in authority; (3) A Holocaust-like treatment of humans as utilitarian objects; and (4) The devaluation of the Euro currency was emphasized as “the final sign”.

In addition to praying and meditating about these prophetic dreams (and other related revelation), I have taken several actions. In late summer of 2006 Path Clearer ministries organized a ministry trip entitled “Piercing the Darkness over Europe”. It focused on opposing the rise in Anti-Semitism and Neo-Naziism in Europe, and learning about history repeating itself, among other points. Seventeen individuals traveled from the US and UK to various cities in Europe, including Auschwitz, Warsaw, and Berlin among other cities. One prophetic word shared with the team in advance was that the dreams revealed to me that Europe and Germany in particular was like a “1939” tinderbox, on the verge of another possible Holocaust. While touring inside the death camp at Auschwitz in Poland I shared with our group what I had “seen” in the dreams of bodies lying on the group in rows and columns. I urged the team members to be mindful and prayerful of the prophetic dream warnings I had received. In Neustadt-Glewe I shared with Christians that I sensed that although the people of Germany have turned their collective backs to God, “It was not too late for Germany to repent”. [Coincidentally Chuck Pierce (Glory of Zion International) subsequently mobilized prophetic intercessory teams to re-trace many of the sites that we had visited during our trip.]

In February 2011 a small team of us returned to Germany for another installment of prophetic intercession and delivery of some key words. My friend Dale Cathey and I knew that we had to deliver this prophetic word in Germany at that time, and without delay. Near Iserlohn to the west and in Dresden to the east, I delivered a message to Christian audiences that contained the revelatory warning dreams above. I shared that I sensed in my spirit a serious urgency to call Germany to repent without further delay. We also made a prayer vigil to Wewelsburg Castle, the former stronghold retreat of Heinrich Himmler's SS, in order to pray and speak against the historic Anti-Semitic evil birthed by that man and the SS that he led. We worshiped Yahweh and spoke against the man who established the demonic "Final Solution" regarding the Jewish people. We also stood at the doors of the cathedral in Wittenberg, where centuries before Martin Luther posted his contentions against the "church" of his day. Although Martin Luther is praised in many corners of Christendom, he is also despised by many Jewish folks for virulent Anti-Semitism of his latter days. He was an admixture of both extremes. In fact, centuries later Adolf Hitler embraced Luther's Anti-Semitism.

Following that trip a European debt crisis prominently surfaced that has seen half a dozen countries within the European Economic Union financially crippled to the point of insolvency. There is even open public discussion of various nations moving away from the Euro as the harmonizing currency of the EU.

It is my prayer that you the reader would have wisdom and revelation to know the LORD even better!
