December 2011 - Issue # 27

A voice of one calling in the desert: "Prepare the way for the Lord; make straight in the wilderness a highway for our God. Every valley shall be raised up, every mountain and hill made low; the rough ground shall become level, the rugged places a plain. And the glory of the Lord will be revealed, and all mankind together will see it. For the mouth of the Lord has spoken." A voice says, "Cry out." (Isaiah 40:3-6)

RECENT HIGHLIGHTS:

India: In October Doru Cirdei (Moldova) and I were guest speakers at the RIMI - Mission India (www.rimi.org) Annual National Leadership Conference in Nagpur. The teachings were on the themes of 1 & 2 Timothy and "leadership". It was my eighth ministry trip to India and one that was remarkable in many ways. The gathering of an estimated 1,500 from all over the nation on the excellent MITS campus was impressive. I had stood on the ground of that property eleven years ago with Saji Lukos when there were no buildings. We had prayed in faith that God would build up this campus to benefit India and SE Asia. One no longer needs faith to see the unseen realm...it is now established as a fact. Saji has done a phenomenal job of leading RIMI-Mission India to this juncture based upon his faith and perseverance. I also noted a significant paradigm shift from a typical "church-centric" model toward a broader view of the Kingdom of God invading all aspects of society. This was most notable with regard to encouraging indigenous models of financial support, and especially so since financial donations from the USA have become much more difficult to obtain (as I had been prophetically warning RIMI for many years). A remarkable example was a large successful for-profit school for children in a village that I had visited on my first trip to India. It was another example of faith in action, and in this case by another friend, Sajan. My friend Doru Cirdei made a favorable impression on all of the attendees. His life of faith and courage in Romania and Moldova, while facing financial challenges and opposition by governmental and religious leaders, resonated with the ministers attending the conference. It was a great week for Doru and me, plus the other foreign guest and conference attendees. We left there highly encouraged, as if our batteries had been recharged.

Dooleys Move to Cabin Lane: In August Laura and I moved our home into a 9 acre mini-farm in Clay, Alabama. The site is our home and a functional farm, but will also be available to host Path Clearer ministry events. Since the late 1990's we have envisioned a day when we would have a "retreat center" of rest for our guests. That desire has now been fulfilled. At the end of 2010, a prophetic friend and author, Steve Sampson, gave a "word" to me - "The LORD is prepared to grant your heart's desire in 2011." Well, this has been a long-term desire and goal, and we are delighted to be here with our log home, Registered Black Angus cattle, chickens, pond, and a nice swimming pool for those hot summer days in Alabama. We're looking forward to using this personal property to reinforce our current relationships and to foster new friendships in the future. For this we are grateful to the LORD! At our initial "open home" Grammy-nominated Terry & Darlene Wildman (Rainsong) performed concerts two evenings and prayed Native American-style blessings over the new land. In addition, Shaun & Valerie Alexander were special guests, and Shaun shared some insights with our guests.

Terry Wildman's Book: I was honored to endorse Terry Wildman's book entitled Sign Language: A Look at the Historic and Prophetic Landscare of America. I recommend that you purchase a copy -- <http://signlanguagebook.wordpress.com> or www.rainsongmusic.com. While you're at it, also purchase a copy of Warren Petosky's Dancing my Dreams. Warren is an Odawa elder, and has written an autobiography expressing his experiences and hardships as a Native American.

2011-2012 Board of Directors: Lisa Boadway, Don Carmichael, Gene Cary, Catherine Cashio (NJ), Dale Cathey, Wayne Crim, Isaac Dooley (NY), Tom Dooley, Laura Dooley, Brian Hume (VA), Noah Leopard, Brad Lindsey, John Manwell (England), Joe McGaha, Diane Murr (ID), Heather Neighbors (Australia), Les Nuttall (England), Susan Ohmann (MN), Greg Reagan, Samuel Sorinmade (MA), Don Stewart, and John Wheeler.

Burning Lamp Media & Publishing -- e-Book re-release of Hope When Everything Seems Hopeless: One of our dear PC Board Members, Brian Hume, has launched a new Christian publishing company, Burning Lamp Media & Publishing. We are excited for him and appreciate all that it takes as an entrepreneur to launch a project like this. There is a real need for high quality publishers, who are willing to publish books from authors-of-merit, rather than authors-of-celebrity. I have often been frustrated at the conventional "worldly business" approach taken by so-called Christian publishers, who would rather sell unenlightend drivel from a popular celebrity, rather than an articulate spiritually-rich book by someone who has genuine spiritual revelation and gravitas. May Burning Lamp clear that thicket. Brian anticipates re-release of the Hope When Everything Seems Hopeless book as an e-book in January 2012. [Note that Praying Faith is already available online as an e-book. It is my desire to eventually re-release Half-Truths are Lies as an e-book, too.]

Insight for 2012: Brothers and sisters in Christ, STAND YOUR GROUND in 2012, without any fear and without backing down as we're admonished in Hebrews 11:32-39. Look up that passage. I have already written and taught concerning Jeremiah chapter 29, wherein the Prophet Jeremiah spoke of what to do in the midst of adversity and great challenges. His exhortation was ~ "...plant vineyards, cultivate the land, have your sons and daughters marry (others), pray for the prosperity of the land of your captivity..." He later records the word of the Spirit's revelation to him, "I am the LORD (Yahweh), the God of all mankind. Is anything too hard for me?" (Jeremiah 32:27). Let us not lose our confidence in 2012.
